

Late Lebanese poet Jawdat Haydar was remembered at an LAU gathering on December 4 in Beirut campus' Irwin Hall Auditorium, held to commemorate the third anniversary of his death. Dean of the School of Arts and Sciences in Beirut Samira Aghacy, as well as guests Dr. John Monroe, who formerly taught at the American University of Beirut, and Lebanese University professor May Maluf, took turns speaking about Haydar—who published numerous works in Arabic and four volumes of poetry in English before his death at the age of 101.
